

Suggested Internet Resources

Information about different animal habitats from National Geographic Kids

<http://kids.nationalgeographic.com/kids/animals/creaturefeature/>

A website that provides a listing of Biomes of the World and background information on each

www.ucmp.berkeley.edu/glossary/gloss5/biome/

Kids do Ecology is a website that provides information on biomes of the world for kids

<http://kids.nceas.ucsb.edu/biomes/>

An introduction to different biomes along with links to other pages

www.kidskonnct.com/subjectindex/15-educational/science/62-biomes.html

Website that provides options and a teacher guide printout on assembling a classroom made book

www.nsta.org/store/product_detail.aspx?id=10.2505/9781936959341

An online book creating site that allows you to use images from the web

<http://simplebooklet.com/publish.php?wpKey=gcjkGiKIbmK8wboFdbe7t8#wpKey=gcjkGiKIbmK8wboFdbe7t8#page=0>

Bookemon allows students to create and share books online for free (if you want to print the book there is a fee)

www.bookemon.com/create-book

Teacher's Guide to D is for Desert that provides additional curriculum based resources for use with this text. www.gale.cengage.com/pdf/TeachersGuides/DesertAlphabet.pdf

Additional Texts

Miller, D. S. 2012. Survival at 120 above. Walker and Company: New York. ISBN: 978-0-8027-9813-8

The desert habitat and animals that live in the Simpson Desert National Park and Regional Reserve in Australia are described.

Sill, C. 2012. About habitats: Oceans. Peachtree: Atlanta. ISBN: 978-1-56145-618-5.

This particular book discusses ocean habitats but there are others in the series that include information on other habitats.