Section 1
Draw and label the structures of the animal that make sound.

Section 2
Draw and label the structures of the animal that detect sound.

Section 3
Explain how the animal uses sound to interact with other animals and its environment.
Section 4
Use words and pictures to describe the technologies bioacousticians use to detect and analyze this animal’s sounds.

________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________
________________________