FLOWERS

Why do plants grow flowers?

________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

What is pollination?

________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

In your book, find 3 examples of animals that help pollinate flowers.

________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

Have you ever seen an animal visit a flower? Which animal was it?

________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

What is something new that you learned from the book?

________________________________________________________________________________