

Plants and Animals Can Change the World
Student Data Sheet

Video 	Observations 	How the environment is changed 	What happened
Squirrels and Nuts
Roots and Road
Gopher Hole
Roots and Concrete
Beaver Dam

Plants and Animals Can Change the World
Show your understanding and finish the prompt

When tree roots grow underground, they can buckle the blacktop. When this happens, the tree roots change the environment by.....

Plants and Animals Can Change the World
Show your understanding and finish the prompt

Some tree roots will follow the easiest path as they grow. When the tree roots grow in between the bricks or stones on the ground, they might change the environment by....

Plants and Animals Can Change the World
Show your understanding and finish the prompt

Squirrels often bury nuts for the winter. What changes are made to the environment at that moment when the squirrel buries the nuts.... What might happen later if the nut is left in the ground?

Plants and Animals Can Change the World
Show your understanding and finish the prompt

The holes that groundhogs dig are used for their living space. The different ways that the land is changed when a groundhog burrows are.....

Plants and Animals Can Change the World
Show your understanding and finish the prompt

Beavers are animals that live in a lodge and build dams. Some of the ways that beavers change the environment around them are.....

--	--

Prompts to Use with
Plants and Animals Can Change the World

When tree roots grow underground, they can buckle the blacktop. When this happens, the tree roots change the environment by.....

Some tree roots will follow the easiest path as they grow. When the tree roots grow in between the bricks or stones on the ground, they might change the environment by....

Squirrels often bury nuts for the winter. What changes are made to the environment at that moment when the squirrel buries the nuts.... What might happen later if the nut is left in the ground?

The holes that groundhogs dig are used for their living space. The different ways that the land is changed when a groundhog burrows are.....

Beavers are animals that live in a lodge and build dams. Some of the ways that beavers change the environment around them are.....