

Making Life Easier

Tony Sarg invented a way to feed the chickens without getting out of his bed in the morning. This made his life easier.

Brainstorm a list of tasks that you would want to make easier by an invention.

The task our group chose is:

My idea for an invention to do this task is (draw your idea in detail).

After talking with group members, we came up with this sketch of our invention.