Teacher survey results shows that all teachers who demonstrated the activity in the classroom agreed that the activity improved student understanding of how a virus finds a target cell.

- 1. The exercise improved student understanding of how a virus finds a target cell.
- 2. The exercise improved student understanding of how viruses replicate.
- 3. The exercise would be beneficial to future biology students.
- 4. The exercise was fun.
- The exercise would take away from valuable lecture time.
- The exercise should not be implemented in biology class.

