

Rubric.

Points	5	4	3	2	1
Joint Location	All joints are located at the meeting of two or more bones	One joint is incorrect, but sensible - such as sutures in the cranium or the cartilage that connects ribs to the sternum	Two joints are incorrect, but sensible - such as sutures in the cranium or the cartilage that connects ribs to the sternum	One joint is incorrect and does not make sense – such as the middle of the femur	Two or more joints are incorrect and one or more of these does not make sense – such as the middle of the femur
Joint Type	The correct name is given to all joints	One joint is mis-identified	-	Two joints are mis-identified	Three or more joints are mis-identified
Joint Motion	The correct motion is listed for all joints	One joint is mis-identified	-	Two joints are mis-identified	Three or more joints are mis-identified
Bones (As this is review, this part of the rubric is more demanding.)	All bones are identified and spelled correctly	All bones are identified correctly, one or more misspellings	One bone is mis-identified	Two bones are mis-identified OR one is mis-identified, but with several misspellings	Three bones are mis-identified OR two are mis-identified, but with several misspellings