

By studying the Bio-swales throughout the school year I learned that a cycle is a thing that goes round and round, and it never stops. It is a circle. this is a cycle that us first Graders made.