

Homework Rubric

Criteria	Developing	Meets
Student utilizes in-class experience for coat design	Student designs water-resistant coat, but does not use materials from class experiment	Student designs coat using materials from previous experiment and design would be water-resistant
Student uses evidence to justify the design	Student states the coat would repel rain	Student explains properties of the materials used in the design and cites evidence and/or observations from the classroom experiment