

Bess Beetle Observation Lab Report

Make a detailed drawing of your Bess beetle below:

The length of my Bess beetle is _____ millimeters.

The width of my Bess beetle is _____ millimeters.

My Bess beetle weighs _____ grams.

The color of my Bess beetle is _____.

My Bess beetle is covered with a hard _____.

My Bess beetle has _____ body parts. They are the _____, the _____, and the _____.

My Bess beetle has _____ jointed legs. They are attached to the _____.

There are _____ joints on each leg.

On the end of each leg my Bess beetle has _____.

Looking closely at the head of my Bess beetle I see . . .

- _____ horn
- _____ antennae
- _____ mandibles for chewing
- _____ compound eyes

Although my Bess beetle can't fly, it does have _____.

My Bess beetle's wings are covered by a hard wing case called an _____.

My Bess beetle's name is _____.

Word Bank
elytra	wings	thorax	head
exoskeleton	claws	abdomen		