

Energy Report

Using the resources provided, answer each question about your assigned type of energy. This report will serve as your notes sheet before you create an Energy Poster.

Energy Type: _____

How is this type of energy formed?

Where do we find this type of energy in the United States? Are there some places that it is easier to mine or find?

How do we collect this type of energy?

Who uses this type of energy?

Other interesting points you found about this type of energy.