

Company Card

1. List the members of the team: _____

2. The type of plastic object that we will use to create a new product is:

3. We selected this object because: _____

4. In doing research about this product, we learned these key facts:

a.

b.

c.

5. Not only will our product reduce the number of _____ that are put into a landfill or become pollution in other places, it will also help to take the place of the following items.

Describe how your product can be used in PLACE of other products made from plastic

6. Draw an initial sketch of your product. After you discussed the design with your team, draw a revised sketch and explain what you changed.

Initial Sketch	Revised Sketch

Product Poster

Create a poster that describes your product and explain how it is used. Make sure to tell potential customers why you selected this piece of plastic to upcycle.

Improvements

After hearing feedback during the presentation, identify at least two improvements that you could make to the product.