

Mandatory Assignments:

_____ Seawater Lab _____ Currents & Gyres Activity _____ Marine ID Quiz _____ Ocean Exploration Test

Tic-Tac-Toe:

Complete one line in any direction: horizontal, vertical or diagonal. The maximum number of points you can earn for each assignment is indicated in parentheses. (Note: 5 bonus points are available if you choose the top right diagonal of assignments). CIRCLE the assignments you have completed.

Ocean Quote Post Read the quote and respond with your thoughts. (On Moodle) (5)	Modern Day Explorers WebQuest Learn about Robert Ballard and other explorers and answer the questions. (On Moodle) (10)	Getting Creative with Longitude Present Harrison's longitude discovery using art, music or theater. Partners allowed. Instructions are on Moodle. (10)
Rubber Duck Lab Use latitude and longitude to track rubber ducks traveling the ocean currents. Copies available in class. (10)	Commander of the Nautilus Game Complete all missions with at least a bronze medal in each. Print out your certificate and turn it in. (10)	Review Sheet Turn in a completed test review sheet. This will be distributed on review day. (5)
Exploring Nautilus Live Learn more about the E/V Nautilus and the recent season of exploration. Instructions are on Moodle. (10)	Critter Twitter Choose an animal from Disney Oceans and create a Twitter feed for it. Instructions/examples on Moodle. (5)	Visit the Ocean The best way to learn about the ocean is to experience it in person. Complete instructions can be found on Moodle. (10)