

Use the chart below to guide your collection of important information about your virus.

Which virus is represented?	What type of genetic material is inside the virus?
What type of cell is the virus able to infect?	How is the virus able to enter the host cell?
Other important/unique characteristics about the virus:	How is the virus able to replicate? (process, associated proteins, etc.)