

Assessment Rubric

Rubric for Mapping Stakeholders Activity
Assessment of Maps (Step 2)	Unsatisfactory (1)	Emergent (2)	Satisfactory (3)	Exemplary (4)
Stakeholders	Includes at least one example of a stakeholder from two of the four general stakeholder types: local residents, government, environmental advocates, and economic advocates	Includes at least one example of a stakeholder from three of the four general stakeholder types	Includes at least one example of a stakeholder from all four of the general stakeholder types	Includes two or more examples of a stakeholder from all four of the general stakeholder types
Pillars of Sustainability	Collectively, evidence across all the stakeholder positions correctly includes one or two of the pillars of sustainability: society, economy, and the environment	Collectively, evidence across all the stakeholder positions correctly includes all three of the pillars of sustainability	Level 2, plus evidence for at least one stakeholder correctly includes two pillars of sustainability	Level 3, plus evidence for more than one stakeholder correctly includes at least two pillars of sustainability

Organization of visual features: Layout, colors, symbols, etc.	Visual features do not add to the written text about the stakeholders and their positions	Visual features convey a point about the stakeholders and their positions. However, this has to be verbally explained to be understood.	Layout, colors, or symbols clearly convey a point about the stakeholders and their positions.	Multiple visual elements are used to clearly convey a point (or points) about the stakeholders and their positions.
Assessment of Solutions (Written Step 3 & Presentations Step 4)	Unsatisfactory (1)	Emergent (2)	Satisfactory (3)	Exemplary (4)
Proposed Solution	Describes in general what the stakeholders should do to solve the issue, but does not back up this claim with evidence	Describes in general what the stakeholders should do to solve the issue, and backs up this claim with specific evidence related to multiple stakeholders	Level 2, plus provides a specific, concrete example of the action that should be taken and identifies the correct stakeholder to take action	Level 3, plus provides clear reasoning about the short and long-term impacts of taking the proposed specific, concrete action