

NSTA LEGACY AWARD

Sponsored by the National Science Teaching Association

PROGRAM SUMMARY

This NSTA award posthumously recognizes long-standing members of NSTA for significant life-long service to NSTA and contributions to science education.

AWARD

One or more individuals may be selected by the NSTA Awards and Recognitions Committee to be honored during the NSTA National Conference. A plaque will be presented to the family of the honoree. NSTA will provide 2 nights lodging, and up to $500 towards travel expenses for a family member to attend the NSTA National Conference.

ELIGIBILITY

This award is open to long-standing members of NSTA (minimum 15 years) who have been deceased for no more than 10 years. An individual may be nominated within ten (10) years after their death; however, there may be variances to these criteria. The NSTA Awards and Recognitions Committee should be consulted in writing prior to recommending an individual more than (10) ten years after their death.

AWARD SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- ★ Completed and signed recommendation form.
- ★ Narrative, no more than three (3) double-spaced pages, of the honoree's significant life-long contributions to science education and service to NSTA. Please include any NSTA Awards that the honoree received prior to their death. Narrative should be a standard 12 point font, on standard 8-1/2" X 11" letter sized paper with 1" inch margins.
- ★ Three (3) letters of support. At least one letter from the current or a former NSTA president is strongly encouraged. Letter writers should include first-hand knowledge of honoree's experiences and impact through life-long contributions to science education and service to NSTA. Letters of support must accompany packet. Letters sent separately will not be considered. Letters should not exceed two (2) pages each.

Upon receipt, all submissions become the property of NSTA. Applications will not be returned. Late or faxed applications will not be accepted. Completed applications must be received by December 21, 2022. Applications may only be submitted via the online submission form found at <https://www.nsta.org/awards>. Questions? Please feel free to e-mail awards@nsta.org.
